WESTERN IDAHO FAIR

Each August we work at the Fair's information booth. We get paid a fee for answering silly questions, and the money helps support the club. As planned, we are slowly taking more of the 40 shifts from the Mustang Sallies group up in Garden Valley. This year we did 23 slots, earning almost a thousand dollars. All but 3 slots were done by drill team members. Next year, we're going to need more folks to take a shift; or to take two shifts. A few of our very dedicated members did 3-4 shifts! Its actually a lot of fun and the people-watching is a bonus.

EQUUS AND OVERTURE: OCTOBER 23RD

This is an every-other-year event that we have performed at before; and they've asked our drill team back!

Unfortunately - they just cancelled the event. (8/30)

But we are still going to meet and prepare for the holiday parades and next year's Expo performance. I've cancelled the bookings at Birt arena. But we will still meet at Lauren's and Bennett's to have some DRILL FUN. Any club member is welcome to join us. We'll do some drill but also play some games. I GOT SOME IDEAS THAT INVOLVE CHICKENS!!
